

Common Core	Hours 38-41
The BELL Core Curriculum
Signature Courses	10-12
First-Year Seminar (Taken semester 1)	3
First-Year Writing (Taken semester 1)	3
Computer Proficiency (Taken semester 1)	0
Linked Cohort Courses (Taken semester 2 or 3)	0*
Junior Cornerstone Seminar (Taken at 60-96 credit hours)	0
Third-Year Writing (Taken at 60-96 credit hours)	3
Senior Capstone Seminar (Taken at 96-128 credit hours)	1-3
Global Studies	0
Four designated courses	0
Experiential Learning	0
Two designated courses (two categories)#	0
Human Experience, Category A	9
Oral Communication (Taken by 60 credit hours)	3
Quantitative Reasoning (Taken by 60 credit hours)	3
Religion, 1000-level (Taken by 60 credit hours)	3
Human Experience, Category B	19-20
Fine Arts (Taken at any point)	3*
Humanities (Taken at any point)	3-4*
Social Sciences (Taken at any point)	3*
Sciences (Taken at any point)	4*
Religion 3000-level (Taken after 60 credit hours)	3
Wellness (Taken at any point)	3*
Total	38-41

* The credit hours for Linked Cohort Courses count within the various "Human Experience--Category A & B" domains. Note that all LCCs include only 1000- and/or 2000-level courses.

 The credit hours for Junior Cornerstone Seminar count within the "Human Experience--Category B" domains. Note that all JCS courses, regardless of the prefix, are numbered "3015."

 The credit hours for Global Studies and Experiential Learning courses count within other domains of the BELL Core--or count within the major, minor, or other required or elective courses.

The six categories of Experiential Learning are: Undergraduate Research; Community-Based Research; Service Learning; Study Abroad; Internships, Clinicals, and Practica; and Senior Recital, Exhibits, or Major Performances.

* These course are taken at any point, unless they are taken to fulfill the Linked Cohort Course or Junior Cornerstone Seminar requirement.