Audition Requirements – Commercial Clarinet

- One jazz selection from The Real Book (published by Hal Leonard) or from a Jamey Aebersold volume.
  - Auditionees are encouraged to bring a CD accompaniment with which to play along, but this is not required.
  - Auditionees are to play their selected tune through three times:
    - First time: Play the melody.
    - Second time: Play an improvised solo based on the chord changes.
    - Third time: Play a contrasting improvised solo based on the chord changes.

- Two prepared selections from the classical repertoire for the instrument – one technical and the other lyrical (e.g. fast and slow movements of a standard concerto). An accompanist is not required.

- Scales and sight reading will be requested.

- Some selections that have been used successfully for auditions are listed below:
  - Arnold – Fantasy for Clarinet
  - Bassi — Nocturne
