Additional BELL Core requirements

- See descriptions on back page of this advising folder
- Interdisciplinary Learning Communities: MUH 1200 + ______
- Junior Cornerstone (Any non-music course ___ 3015) ______
Interdisciplinary Learning Communities Requirement:

All Music Majors must take two “linked” Interdisciplinary Learning Community BELL Core courses during the spring semester of their Freshman year. One of the courses must be MUH 1200 Introduction to Music: History, Style and Culture. The two linked courses include the same students and are connected by a natural overlap in content, allowing students to encounter a subject using the perspective, methods, and questions of two different disciplines. These are NOT extra courses; rather, each is one of the courses required in the BELL Core.

Junior Cornerstone Requirement

- Should be taken during the Junior Year
- Is NOT an extra course. Rather it is a course from the General Education categories (see front page of check sheet) that is offered with the designation “Junior Cornerstone” in ClassFinder. The number will be _ _ _ 3015.
- For music majors, the Junior Cornerstone should be in an area other than music.
- All Junior Cornerstone courses are problem-based courses, and are, by definition experiential in nature.
