Local Resident Graduates from Belmont University

NASHVILLE, TENN. - William Student of Johnsonville, Tenn. graduated from Belmont University with a BBA in Marketing on Aug. 8, 2014 during the Nashville school’s summer commencement ceremony.

William, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parent and the grandson of Jan Grandparent of Brentwood, Tenn., graduated cum laude (with honors) for maintaining a grade point average of 3.50 - 3.749. An active member of the Student Government Association, he served as class treasurer during his junior and senior years. He was also a three-year recipient of the Pacific Records music business scholarship, qualified for Dean's List recognition five times, and was involved with campus ministries.

Ranked No. 7 in the Regional Universities South category and named for the fifth consecutive year as one of the top “Up-and-Comer” universities by U.S. News & World Report, Belmont University consists of approximately 6,900 students who come from every state and more than 25 countries. Committed to being a leader among teaching universities, Belmont brings together the best of liberal arts and professional education in a Christian community of learning and service. The University’s purpose is to help students explore their passions and develop their talents to meet the world’s needs, a fact made evident in the University’s hometown, Nashville, where students, faculty and staff served more than 243,000 hours of community service (valued at more than $5 million) during 2012. Belmont is also home to the World Cup champion Enactus team, a group of 42 student leaders committed to using the power... of entrepreneurial action to transform lives and shape a better, more sustainable world. With more than 80 areas of undergraduate study, 22 master’s programs and five doctoral degrees, there is no limit to the ways Belmont University can expand an individual's horizon. For more information, visit www.belmont.edu.