

4

ENGAGE & TRANSFORM THE WORLD – Locally & Globally

Viewing higher education as a transformative experience, Belmont prepares its graduates to take civic responsibilities seriously, to consider innovative solutions to problems and to bring the best of themselves, their creativity, their intellectual skills and their faith to meet the challenges and opportunities that face the human community.

➤ Country, gospel and contemporary Christian artists came together in Massey Concert hall to perform a benefit concert for victims of the Asian tsunami.

▲ In a partnership with HCA, Trevecca Nazarene University, Volunteer State Community College and Nashville State Community College, Belmont formed Partners in Nursing – a consortium created to address the growing shortage of registered nurses in Tennessee.

▼ Net profits from Belmont's inaugural Latin Street Fair benefited underprivileged youth, assisting them in pursuing higher education, training or enrollment at technical colleges.

➤ Past Watchful Dragons, a weekend-long conference on the life and works of celebrated author C.S. Lewis, welcomed more than 300 participants to Belmont's campus.

➤ WSMV Channel 4 broadcast Belmont's Best of the Best showcase, a preview of the music industry's next top artists and writers.

➤ Belmont hosted Ambassador Abde Bagi Kabeir from the Sudanese Embassy in order to express concerns to him about the genocide in his country.

▲ Rising country star Josh Turner hosted Christmas at Belmont, which was broadcast nationwide on PBS on 595 stations and aired over 1,500 times through the month of December.

➤ The newly established Community Outreach Scholarship will pay 50 percent of a neighborhood student's tuition for up to eight consecutive semesters.

➤ Student-athletes, faculty and staff members participated in a sports evangelism mission trip to Ukraine.