Local Resident Qualifies for Dean's List at Belmont University

NASHVILLE, TENN. - William Student of Johnsonville, Tenn., qualified for the summer 2014 Dean's List at Belmont University. Eligibility is based on a minimum course load of 12 hours and a quality grade point average of 3.5 with no grade below a C.

William, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parent and the grandson of Helen Grandparent of Brentwood, Tenn., is majoring in Music Business with a minor in accounting. An active member of the Student Government Association, he currently serves as class treasurer. He is also involved with campus ministries.

Ranked No. 7 in the Regional Universities South category and named for the fifth consecutive year as one of the top “Up-and-Comer” universities by U.S. News & World Report, Belmont University consists of approximately 6,900 students who come from every state and more than 25 countries. Committed to being a leader among teaching universities, Belmont brings together the best of liberal arts and professional education in a Christian community of learning and service. The University’s purpose is to help students explore their passions and develop their talents to meet the world’s needs, a fact made evident in the University’s hometown, Nashville, where students, faculty and staff served more than 243,000 hours of community service (valued at more than $5 million) during 2012. Belmont is also home to the World Cup champion Enactus team, a group of 42 student leaders committed to using the power of entrepreneurial action to transform lives and shape a better, more sustainable world. With more than 80 areas of undergraduate study, 22 master’s programs and five doctoral degrees, there is no limit to the ways Belmont University can expand an individual's horizon. For more information, visit www.belmont.edu.
one of the top “Up-and-Comer” universities by U.S. News & World Report, Belmont University consists of 243,000 hours of community service (valued at more than $5 million) during 2012. Belmont is also home