Nick was bad in school.
But everybody thought he was cool.

One day he decided to make a word.
His teacher thought it was absurd.

The word described a pen.
He wanted it to be the new trend.

The word was Frindle.
I saw it on my kindle.

MS. Granger was a pest.
She made us stay after school to take tests.

When Nick got rich.
He got his big wish.

Nick got his word in the dictionary book.
Creativity, and passion is all it took.
