A penguin is Tacky
He's kind of wacky
His friends are neat and good
They all get the way they shine
In the water Tacky shines
His friends don't make splashes
Come one, come all!
To see Tacky's cannon ball
One day, the catchers came
And when Tacky saves his friends
He went down the road of fame
His friends shouted, "Hooray, Hooray!
Tacky saves the day!"
Here's where he stops the catchers
He acted like himself
He acted silly and wacky
He acted how he should really be
He acted like Tacky
