

WORK well

Spring Semester 2022

Sponsored by

Career & Professional Development, Massey College of Business Career Development Center and Alumni Relations

January
19

Esau McCaulley, MPAC

Sponsored by Office of the President

10:00am

Esau McCaulley, Ph.D., is an assistant professor of New Testament. His research and writing focus on Pauline theology and the intersection of race, Christian identity, and the pursuit of justice.

January
31

Communicating Your Brand: How to Market Yourself, Massey 103

Competency: Communication and Career & Self Development;

*Credit: Occupational Well-Being

10:00am

Join us to for a presentation on the importance of “Marketing Yourself” and personal branding.

February
10

Assessing Company Culture During the Interview, Massey Boardroom

*Competency: Career & Self Development; Credit: Occupational Well-Being

4:00pm

This event will help students better understand company culture and “fit” and how to gain insight into an organization prior to being hired.

February 21

Homecoming Non-Profit Fair, 1st Floor JAAC

Cosponsored by Alumni Relations, Office of Service Learning and BOLD

*Competency: Communication; Credit: Cultural Well-Being

10:00am-
12:00pm

The purpose of the fair is to introduce the great work Belmont Alumni are doing in the non-profit and social entrepreneurship realm and give students the opportunity to meet alumni, learn about service and potential job opportunities engaging and transforming the world.

February
23

Alumni Panel: Pursuing a Creative Career, Bunch Library Multimedia Hall

*Competencies: Career & Self Development, Professionalism, Credit: Occupational Well-Being

10:00am

Learn from a panel of creative alumni as they “tell all” about the realities of pursuing their passions. Gain tips for developing your brand, marketing yourself (and your work), customer/fan acquisition and resources for self-employed creatives.

Co-sponsored by the Cone Center for Entrepreneurship, Watkins College, O’More College of Architecture and Design and the Arts & Business Council of Greater Nashville

Mondays
in March (7, 14,
21, 28)

Leadership Lately: Every Monday in March learn and discuss the latest in leadership.

Sponsored by BOLD

Competencies: Leadership; Communication

Check BruinLink for details.

March 9

How to Make the Most of Your Summer, JAAC 1034

Co-sponsored by GPS and Bunch Library

*Competencies: Career & Self Development, Critical Thinking, Credit: Occupational Well-Being

10:00am

Join GPS and Career & Professional Development as they host an interactive panel discussing how students can utilize their time off during the summer. Gain insight into making the most of your internship or summer job, maximizing summer courses, learning new professional skills and more!

- March 30 #Adulting: Navigating the Transition from College to Career, JAAC 1034
Co-sponsored by GPS, Counseling Services and Alumni Relations
*Competency: Career & Self Development; Credit: Occupational Well-Being
- 10:00am Are you a graduating senior facing the transition to life after Belmont? This season can be filled with both hope and anxiety as you consider preparing for your future career, navigating relationships, planning your finances and more. Join us for a panel discussion during which Belmont alums will share lessons learned from their personal post-grad journeys.
- April 6 Negotiating Salary & Perks, Massey 103
*Competency: Career & Self Development; Credit: Occupational Well-Being
- 10:00am Learn from a panel of seasoned HR and recruiting executives as they share tips and strategies for navigating this potentially awkward conversation. Know your worth and make your job offer count!

Recruitment Events

(not available for WELL-Core Credit)

- | | |
|--------------------|------------------------------------|
| January 24 | Part-Time Job Fair |
| 10:00am-12:00pm | |
| February 15 | School of Nursing BSN Career Fair |
| 9:00am – 11:30am | |
| March 2 | Curb College Internship Fair & Now |
| 9:00am – 12:00pm | Hiring |
| March 3 | Education Career Fair |
| 3:00pm - 5:00pm | |
| March 31 | Nashville Area Career Fair |
| 1:00pm - 4:00pm | |

Check Handshake for career cluster specific events and regular updates.

Contact careerdevelopment@belmont.edu for more details.