STAY IN THE KNOW AT BELMONT UNIVERSITY WITH THE MONTHLY TOP 3 FROM THE PROVOST OFFICE

1. “THIS IS OUR SHOT!” Vaccine Clinic

Health Services is holding its annual vaccine clinic in the Maddox Grand Atrium on September 17 and October 23 from 9 am – 4 pm. No cost to Belmont students, faculty and staff. AND no appointments necessary! Let’s keep Belmont healthy this year.

2. PARENT FAMILY WEEKEND IS SEPTEMBER 27-29

The Parent and family engagement team has planned a fun-filled family event for all Belmont families. From athletic events to concerts, Parent and Family Weekend provides the perfect weekend for family members to experience life at Belmont. You can register for parent and family weekend here. Find out more and preview the schedule for the weekend HERE.

3. BURS IS NOW SPARK!

Belmont’s Research Symposium is expanding. We have a full day dedicated to student Scholarship, Performance, Art, Research, and Knowledge on April 16, 2025. It’s never too early to start planning your presentation. More information can be found HERE. If you are interested in using SPARK to elevate student’s work, take a moment to complete this FORM. Please reach out to Beth Bowman with any questions.

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that Belmont has “A Place Where You Belong”? The HUB: Office of Hope, Unity & Belonging is that place. Check out their WEBSITE to learn more about how Belmont promotes an inclusive campus community – one where individuals are valued and respected.

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH:

As we come to a new beginning of an Academic year, I would like to offer this prayer for us based on II Corinthians 5:17 . I thank you, Father, for transforming us all from an old creation to a new one. Help us remember that You no longer see who I used to be, but who I am in Christ. Strengthen us all to trust that You will never leave us where we are. In the name of Jesus we pray, Amen.
